Midweek

Conservation and Conversation Glenfern Valley Bushlands

The plan this month is to work visit the new plantings on the Archery boundary, and to weed and secure the stakes and bags to give the trees the best chance of growing over summer. If there is time we can hand pull a few stray pittos and bone seeds in that area. We also will be hosting the Leap into Nature playgroup in the quarry area. We will have a cupper at the quarry picnic table to complete the morning.
